PROSPECTUS GLASGOW FREE PRESS.

GLASGOW, Ky., December 23, 1857. GLASGOW, KY., December 23, 1857.

Dear Sir:—Having disposed of our Printing Office in Elizabethtown, Ky., and removed to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating we purpose commencing the publication of a newspaper sometime during the month of February, to be entitled "THE GLASGOW FREE PRESS." It will be devoted to General Literature, Politics, Agriculture, the Arts and Sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general interests of the town and county, and those adjacent. No pains or exertion on our part will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

An earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, combining a variety of interesting and instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the business, and being practically familiar with its mechanical duties, we indulge the hope that we shall be enabled to subserve to some extent, the interests to which the "FPRE PRESS" will be dedicated.

American Politics at the present time, may be said very justly, to be in a chrysalis state. We do not de sign, in this Prospectus, to enter the domain of speculation. It is not necessary to the present purpose, or to define our political position. This may be defined very briefly. We are conscientiously opposed to the practices and the precepts of Modern Democracy. We regard the Democratic party, as now constituted, essentially an alien party; and consider its aims and purposes, as awowed by its organs, practiced by the leaders, and developed in the present administration, pregnant with evil to the Union, in violation of the plain injunctions of the early fathers, and disastrous to American Nationality. We recognize in the "Address of the American Party," promulgated at the Louisville Convention, a political creed, eminently adapted to present exigencies. We believe that in the fundamental principles of that organization may be found the panaceae for eat the country and founcite excetd, existent the plant injunctions, if not all the political evils, which have disordered the country and founcite decition at strife, and which a proper respect for the opinions of others, whose victions may lead them to differ with us. It is the pliarity and the boast of American institutions, that liarity and the boast of American institutions, that they secure to each and every one the "free and untrammeted expression of his opinions." In no other government is this perfect freedom of opinion in the citizen tolerated, or considered compatible with the dignity of the State. Our whole system of government reposes upon this basis. Public opinion is here at once the source and the support of power. We cherish an appreciation of the great privilege, too exalted, to induce us to refuse to others what we are prompt to claim for ourselves. Hence the columns of the "Free Press" will at all times be open to well written, courteous articles, even though they may conflict with our individual opinions.

We invoke, in aid our enterprise, the support and patronage of the citizens of Barren and surrounding counties, and especially those whose opinions may harmonize with the general viewsherein expressed.

We send you this circular, hoping that you may feel inclined to give us the benefit of your influence, in procuring a list of subscribers in your locality, by the 1st day of February, 1858.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

"CENTRAL KENTUCKIAN." PUBLISHED IN LEBANON, KY

Lebanon, since the completion of the Railroad, con-ecting it with Louisville, is a point of interest to a large ection of country. There are hundreds of persons broad who are in want of information upon various abroad who are in want of information upon various topics connected with it, such as the prices current, facilities for doing and having business done here, &c., and the citizens of Lebanon themselves, wish to inform the public at large, that it is one of the most enterprising and flourishing towns in the interior of the State, and that it offers great inducements as a place of residence to men of almost every honorable trade and profession. To supply these wants, of people abroad and citizens at home, we have determined to publish "The Central Kentuckian"—a paper devoted to the Commercial, Agricultural, Literary, and Moral welfare of the community in which it is circulated.

It is hoped that we shall be able, by attention to the interest of all concerned, to supply a desideratum long felt.

Citizens of Lebanon, and of Marion and surrounding counties, to you, of whatever political party or religious sect, we look for support—and the more liberal that is, the larger and more entertaining will be our paper—for we are determined, if you will place in our hands the means, to make the Central Kentuckian worthy of pendence by pledging ourselves to any party or sect, yet we shall promise you Neutrality in Nothing. If we are not capable of choosing our subject matter, and of commenting upon all or any topic of public interest, in a manner which shall be at once courieous and inofensive, we ought not occur before you as Editors. To be faithful journalists of passing events—candid critics of public acts—and successful advocates of Truth, is the hight of our ambition.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, GEORGE R. McKEE, OF PULASKI COUNTY.

W. J. N. Welburn.

It will be seen by reference to the proceeding of the House of Representatives of vesterday, that this gentleman resigned his position as first Assistant Clerk of that body. We understand that Mr. W resigned his place in consequence of receiving intelligence of the indisposition of his family. Mr. W. came among us, at the com mencement of the session, a stranger, but he teristic. leaves the seat of government with a host of friends. The House of Representatives, by a unanimous vote, adopted a resolution expressive of their high appreciation of him as an officer. It was a deserved compliment to a most worthy gentleman.

THE FIGHT IN CONGRESS .- It will be seen by a telegraphic despatch in to-day's paper, that the halls of national legislation have been dis graced by another row. As might reasonably be expected, one of South Carolina's hot-headed sons, Keitt, was the provoker and the beginne of the melee. It will be remembered that in the Brooks and Sumner difficulty, Mr. Keitt raised his stick to strike Mr. Crittenden for expressing his condemnation of the brutal assault, but very wisely concluded to place it by his side again without using it Being emulous of the noto riety of Mr. Brooks, Keitt has again endeav ored to bully members of Congress, and find ing himself foiled in the attempt resorted to blows Now, we deeply regret that a blow should have been struck in Congress at all, but inasmuch as Mr. Keitt began the assault, we are heartily rejoiced that Mr. Grow knocked him down, and do most earnestly hope that he be labored him well. A number of those south ern fire-eaters have taken it into their half-crack ed heads that northern men won't fight, and therefore are continually insulting and at tempting to brow beat them. The only way to stop this insolence is for some five or six north ern Congressmen to defend their good names as becomes men, and let these South Carolinian bullies understand that they must keep civil tongues in their heads and their hands to them selves or expect to be held to a strict accountabil itv. If some ten or twelve of them should re ceive ounce bullets in their digestive organs, i would be truly surprising how remarkably cour teous they would suddenly become. The con duct of Burlingame threw such an imputation over the reputation of men in his section, that the cowardice of northern men has become al most proverbial in the south, and the most timid youth in Kentucky would not think his person endangered by an attempt to castigate an Ab olitionist. We have ever believed that such an imputation was exceedingly unjust, but the soon er that northern men prove it to be so the better We should then have no more swaggering blackguarding, and fisticuffing in Congress.

II In another column we publish a communi cation from a respected friend, over the sig nature of "GRANT," upon the subject of public lecturing. We are sincerely glad that our remarks upon this subject have attracted the attention of our correspondent, and we would seek to impress their truth and importance upon the minds of every one in the community. The tions which will do much toward directing the young to a healthy and beneficial course of reading litical, religious, or literary topics, than by any

Thus far we entirely agree with our correspon dent, and cordially invite his co-operation in our endeavors to arouse a taste for refined intellectual amusements in our State. But we really do not join in with him in his denunciation of the intable food for the mind, we would also sedulously cultivate the development of the body. The one depends upon the other, and while every nerve should be strained to provide means of educating the minds and immortal souls of men, each institution of the kind should be provided with a gymnasium for the proper development of the physical man. More harm, in our opinion, results from teaching the young to guard against others of the opposite sex, as a set of villains than from that villainy itself. We would introduce lecturing into our academies, and into our public rooms, but we would also introduce billiard tables, calisthenics, fencing, and dancing into the family circle, and think that we had done the community a service. Dancing is a healthy and agreeable exercise, and should be enconraged. The body should yield precedence to the and I will soon fulfill that promise, to the confumind, because the mind of man is formed after sion of my enemies, and the brilliancy of my the image of his maker; but still, we must con- fame." fess to being sufficiently of a materialist to glorify man in the flesh.

publicly expressing our high appreciation of your services during the term for which you were elected. We believe we but express the sentiments of the community when we say that you, regardless of party, have faithfully and punctu ally discharged the duties of the office. The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.
